GREAT RUNWAY & FACILITIES!

2007 National Aeromodeling Championships

The Academy of Model Aeronautics presents the 81st National Aeromodeling Championships (Nats). This is the world's largest aeromodeling competition, in which pilots of all skill levels come together to compete against each other, and it's not all about winning!

Many competitors come each year to enjoy the company of their fellow fliers and to make new friends and memories! The Nats is a six-week-long competition that features a variety of events in which to participate.

From large Scale Aerobatics aircraft to rubber-band-powered FF models, you will surely find something that sparks your interest. Whether you want to compete or be a spectator, we are extending this invitation to all members, their friends, and their families to come out and be a part of modeling history.

Kicking off the Nats are the Indoor Free Flight events, which are scheduled for May 29-June 3, 2007, at Johnson City, Tennessee, in the East Tennessee State University Mini-Dome. This site has been used for many years and is a premier venue for Indoor events.

The outdoor events, to be held at the International Aeromodeling Center in Muncie, Indiana, start with the 2007 Pylon World Championships beginning June 23. The outdoor Nats events will follow, running June 29-August 5.

For more information or a detailed schedule of events, please visit www.modelaircraft.org/events/ or call (765) 287-1256, extensions 224, 252, or 293.
